Metallic fondue sets

Swissmar offers metallic fondue sets in cast aluminum, stainless steel and copper-plated stainless steel which are ideal for an oil/broth fondue. Suited for cooking at high temperatures, the oil/broth is often pre-heated directly in the fondue pot on the stovetop and then carefully transferred to the rechaud base. With an oil/broth fondue it is important to use the spatter guard to prevent hot oil splatters.

Ceramic fondue sets

Swissmar Ceramic Fondues are best suited for cheese fondue. Combine the smooth heat-conductivity of the ceramic, with the Swiss caquelon shape, and you are sure to have an amazing cheese fondue experience. Control the flame and a traditional fondue of Emmenthal and Gruyere cheeses, or any cheese, is less likely to burn in a ceramic pot.

TIP:

Chocolate should be melted in the top of a double boiler, over gently simmering water, never over direct heat. You can also microwave it, uncovered, on medium, stirring frequently. If you are using cream, ensure that it is warm when adding it to the chocolate. If the chocolate clumps together, try stirring in unsalted butter or vegetable oil one teaspoon at a time, until the chocolate becomes smooth again.

A Swiss Tradition

Originating in Switzerland, raclette (the dish), is one of Switzerland's best-loved national fares. Its origin dates back hundreds of years, to when shepherds (Swiss cowboys) would move their herds high into the mountains for grazing in the warm summer months. Supplies would be limited to what could be carried and consisted of basics, such as potatoes, flour, perhaps some pickled gherkins, a round of cheese produced from the milk of their beloved cows, and of course, a good Swiss wine. Long, lonely evenings were passed in front of a campfire, and a simple and primitive tradition was born: A wheel of cheese was cut in half and placed on a rock near the fire's edge. The cheese slowly bubbled and just before dripping into the fire, the wheel was lifted from its perch and scraped onto a waiting plate of potatoes and pickles - the word "Raclette" comes from the French word "racler" meaning "to scrape off". From these humble origins, the Raclette tradition was born.

Candlelight fondue & raclette

These innovative Candlelight Fondue & Raclette take the Swiss fun of Raclette to a new level. The compact design makes it easy to enjoy Raclette on the patio, picnic, camping or on any adventure. Powered by tealight candles, you can melt delicious cheese and enjoy over boiled potatoes and bread (the truly Swiss experience), or get more creative and add bubbly, melted cheese to crackers or a sandwich.

Salt keepers

Our beautiful genuine Italian olive wood salt keepers certainly add a decorative touch to kitchen counters, but perhaps more importantly they ensure salt is accessible while cooking. There is no need to fiddle with a salt mill or shaker in the midst of the culinary process, simply open the lid and reach for a pinch. To prevent moisture from dampening the salt, be sure the lid is used.
